

In Your Neighborhood - Boulder

Personal Investment Enterprise (PIE) Program—matched savings and financial literacy program driving over $1.25 million into our local economies. There have been 126 total PIE graduates in Boulder: 42 graduates purchased a home, 33 developed a business and 51 pursued secondary education.

We are the local sponsor of the EPIC book drive to benefit local children with limited access to books, especially during summer break. Thousands of books were provided to children in Boulder and Broomfield counties.

FHUW's Volunteer Connection brings volunteer teams together with local non-profits that need help at projects in Boulder including Meals on Wheels and the Safehouse Progressive Alliance for Nonviolence.

United Way's Volunteer Connection partnered with DOVIA Colorado to launch a local chapter ensuring an even stronger volunteer experience.

2-1-1 offers a free, simple way to call for information and referral addressing all kinds of challenges facing residents of Boulder and Broomfield counties.

The Truancy Improvement Project reduces the use of detention, identifies and matches services to truant youth and family needs, and uses real-time knowledge to create better solutions to increase school success.

The Boulder County Assuring Better Child Health and Development (ABCD) Partnership streamlines access to developmental services for children in all of Boulder County.

OUR CENTER Family Leadership Training Institute empowers individuals and families to drive positive change while serving in meaningful leadership roles.

Boulder County Safer Families Initiative is dedicated to keeping children safe, providing them with a supportive, nurturing environment, and supporting non-abusing parents who are also victims of domestic violence.

Better Together is a set of workshops that empowers individuals to develop the personal skills and connections to help protect themselves, their families and their neighbors during emergency situations.

No Student Hungry Partnership, dedicated to serving populations suffering from food insecurity.

CircleTalk - Increasing Engagement and Decreasing Social Isolation for Older Adults will train facilitators in a program for vulnerable and at-risk older adults to enjoy a sense of belonging, develop a feeling of community, experience meaningful engagement & feel less isolated.

Foothills United Way

