FOOTHILLS UNITED WAY SERVES THE MOUNTAIN REGION OF BOULDER COUNTY

Foothills United Way focuses on innovative and preventive solutions that address Attainable Housing, Strengthening Families for Early Childhood Success and Community Resilience.

Delivering Services – Foothills United Way is dedicated to providing resources to our community through initiatives that create positive change in our community.

- ✓ Personal Investment Enterprise (PIE) Program–This matched savings and financial literacy program has driven over $1.25 million into our local Boulder and Broomfield county economies, including residents of the Mountain Region of Boulder County.
- ✓ United Way sponsored a book drive in Boulder County to benefit children who otherwise do not have access to books. Businesses across Boulder County hosted collection boxes, bringing in over 5,600 children’s books.
- ✓ The Volunteer Connection at Foothills United Way facilitates team volunteer projects in Mountain Region of Boulder County nonprofit organizations including, the Lyons Emergency Assistance Fund and Cal-Wood Education Center.
- ✓ In 2017 Day of Caring, Foothills United Way brought together 1,100 volunteers from 35 area businesses and organizations. They worked on 64 projects at 47 sites including the Mountain Region of Boulder County.

Building Collaboration – Because we know one organization alone can’t solve our community’s largest problems, these are examples of the various ways Foothills United Way invests in the community to change the odds for individuals and families.

- ✓ The Peak to Peak Housing and Human Services Task Force is a consortium of Human Service Providers who meets monthly to address problems that affect the mountain communities. They are committed to improving the community, making sure those who are struggling get the resources they need to help them achieve their highest potential.
- ✓ The Mountain Human Services Collaborative is a Peak to Peak work group focused on implementing projects that address gaps in services.
- ✓ Connecting by Communicating is a network of HAM radio operators focused on strengthening and enhancing the essential communication network for mountain communities, ensuring that vulnerable residents remain connected and get the assistance they need during times of crisis and disaster.
